YOUR HORSE RIDING AND SPORT EXPERIENCE

You ride: English style western style outdoor riding

How long and how often do you practice horse riding?

Are you comfortable at all paces in the open (=able to canter/gallop outside independently)

Have you already been on several days trails (if yes, when, where and how many days)?

Did you pass a horse riding diploma that confirms your riding abilities? If yes, which one?

Do you know how to brush, saddle, and unsaddle your horse alone?

Do you practice other sports regularly?

Your height (in meters): Your weight (in kilogram):

Attention: do not rate yourself too highly. Any wrong statement creates disorder in the trail (rhythm, security...) and could cause the guide to exclude you of the trail.

YOUR REPATRIATION INSURANCE

If you subscribe to the multirisk insurance proposed by Randocheval, you have nothing to fill in here. You will be covered by our contract subscribed at "Axelliance".

If you do not subscribe our multirisk insurance, or Non-European Residents, please complete the insurance disclaimer below and send us a travel insurance certificate in a minimum delay of 1 month before departure.

Insurance disclaimer: I certify not to subscribe the Multirisk insurance suggested by Randocheval – Absolu Voyages, because I already have my own International Emergency Medical Assistance suitable for horse riding activities.

HEADGEAR

Randocheval highly recommends wearing a certified head gear on all our trails.

I undersigned _____ certify by the present statement to have been fully advised of the recommendation concerning the wearing of a headgear to practice horse riding. I release Randocheval – Absolu Voyages and its partners of all liability in the case that I refuse to wear the helmet despite of the supplied recommendations (important: headgear is compulsory for children on all trails and for adults on some specific trails, for example in Iceland, Romania, Portugal, Botswana...)
